It is clear from the facts as stated in the Muzrai Commr's letter, that the persons in whose names the bonds were issued were not alive at the time of the issue. So any persons claiming as the heirs of those persons cannot make out that those bonds were their properties ~~of them~~.

Besides, the heirs of the deceased also are also stated to have no objection. The bonds may therefore be received.

To

K. V. Anantaraman, Esquire., B.A.,

Secretary to the Government of His

Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Revenue Department.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith correspondence ending with C.No.778 of -- 23-24 dated the 20th October 1924 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, regarding the endowment of Giriamma and Sitamma in favour of the Sri Prasanna Nanjundeswaraswami temple at Santhepet, Mysore City, I have the honor to state as follows:--

One Girjamma and another Seethamma had deposited a sum of Rs.50/- each with the co-operative Bank, Mysore, for the performance of Dolotsava seva during Sravana month every year in the Sri Prasanna Nanjundeswara swami temple out of the interest realized thereon. With a view to get a higher rate of interest, the convenor of the committee of Dharmadarsis Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit to whom the management of the sevas was entrusted owing to the death of the donors wrote to the Taluk Amildar to withdraw the amounts from the co-operative Bank and to invest the same in 6¼% -- State Loan Bonds. The latter officer instead of purchasing the bonds in the name of the Deity or the Dewan of Mysore purchased them in the name of the deceased donors.

When the recommendation was submitted by the Deputy Commissioner for the acceptance of the bonds as an endowment for Puduvat sevas in the temple, he was requested to ascertain and let me know if there were any legal representatives or heirs to the deceased donors who would take any objection to such a transfer being effected and in reply he reports that there are no heirs or legal representatives to any of them and recommends the acceptance of the puduvat offer in the shape of the two 6½% Loan --

C.007237 Seethamma Rs.50/- } Loan Bonds.
C.007238 Girlamma Rs.50/- }

In these circumstances sanction of Government may kindly be accorded to renew the bonds herewith transmitted in the name of the Dewan of Mysore. On receipt of the orders the endowment will be formally accepted and the bonds left in the custody of the Comptroller to Government to facilitate the timely drawal of interest.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M Laudy

Mysore Commissioner.
